

NUMERICAL INDEX OF SPECIALIZED INFORMATION PROTECTION PUBLICATIONS

NOTICE: This publication is available digitally on the SAF/AAD WWW site at: <http://afpubs.hq.af.mil>. If you lack access, contact your Publishing Distribution Office (PDO) for the monthly CD-ROM or access to the bulletin board system. Paper publications will be discontinued in December 1996.

★This index is a users reference of specialized Information Protection publications. These publications pertain to the communications security (COMSEC), computer security (COMPUSEC), emission security (EMSEC), and Information Protection Awareness, Education, and Training programs. This index also lists publications of other organizations, such as the National Security Agency (NSA), the National Computer Security Center (NCSC), and the National Institute of Standards and Technology (NIST) that are of interest to persons engaged in Information Protection activities. Unless noted otherwise, the Air Force Publishing Distribution Center (AFPDC) distributes these publications through its distribution system to publishing distribution offices (PDO) and users (see AFI 37-161, Distribution Management). PDOs establish requirements and requisition these items from the AFPDC in the short title format shown in this index. Where source and ordering information are through other than AF publications distribution channels, that information is indicated as necessary. New and revised publications will be announced in the Air Force Publishing Bulletin (AFPB). Send comments, changes, and suggested improvements direct to HQ AFCA/SYSC, 203 W Losey Street Room 2040, Scott AFB IL 62225-5234.

SUMMARY OF CHANGES

★This revision updates the title to reflect the technology evolution of Communications-Computer Systems Security to Information Protection, changes the OPR unit designator from HQ AFC4A to HQ AFCA, provides a World Wide Web address for accessing certain publications, adds AFLMMs and TCLMMs to the Limited Maintenance Publications section, and includes a new section to identify obsolete publications..

9. The Computer Systems Laboratory (CSL). CSL is responsible for developing standards, providing technical assistance, and conducting research for computers and related systems. CSL's activities provide technical support to government and industry in the effective, safe, and economical use of computers. CSL's work is mandated under the Brooks Act (P.L. 89-306) and the Computer Security Act of 1987 (P.L. 100-235). The Computer Security Publications NIST

Publication List 91 identifies the source, price, and order number for CSL publications. This NIST Publication List 91 is available from the Government Printing Office (GPO) or the electronic bulletin board system (BBS).

9.1. Accessing the BBS requires a standard ASCII terminal or personal computer with serial communications capability. The terminal must be set up for the following communications parameters:

Modem Baud Rate: 2400, 1200, or 33 - dial (301) 948-5717
Modem Baud Rate: 9600 - dial (301) 948-5140
Data Bits: 8/with no parity or 7/even parity
Stop Bits: 1

9.1.1. Dial and wait for the system to answer. If the line is busy or is not answered in two rings, hang up and try again.

9.1.2. After the CONNECT message is displayed, the system begins a simple log-on dialogue. Use your real name when you log on. You may be asked to answer a questionnaire.

9.1.3. The BBS provides you with on-line help and various choices of menus. As a first-time user, you should read the various bulletins that are available.

9.1.4. If you are using a personal computer, you may download any file without restriction.

9.2. The BBS is available 24 hours a day. Each user has a maximum time limit of 70 minutes a day, 60 minutes on one call.

9.3. Internet Access. To access the BBS via Internet, use the telnet command, for example:

Type 'telnet cs-bbs.nist.gov' or 'telnet 129.6.54.30'.

To download BBS files, Internet users need to use ftp as follows:

Type 'ftp csrsc.nist.gov' or 'ftp 129.6.54.11'.
Log in to account anonymous, using your Internet address as the password.
BBS files are located in directory bbs.

9.4 Gopher Access. Telenet to the NIST Gopher:

Type 'telnet gopher.nist.gov' or 'telnet 129.6.2.2'
Log in Gopher

9.5 The following CSL publications are available through the Government Printing Office (GPO) and the National Technical Information Service (NTIS) as indicated. Orders for specific CSL publications should include title of publication, NIST publication number (SPEC PUB 000, NISTIR 000, etc.) and GPO or NTIS number as indicated in the Computer Security Publications NIST Publication List 91 document. Prices are subject to change without notice.

★10. Special Publications and Other Reports. These publications present the results of CSL studies, investigations, and research on computer security and risk management issues. Special Publications (SPEC PUB) present documents of general interest to the computer security community. NIST Internal Reports (NISTIR) describe CSL research of a technical nature of interest to a specialized audience. Publications are sold by either the Government Printing Office or the National Technical Information Service. Addresses and telephone numbers for ordering are:
